Calcutta, the 10th March 1911.

SIR,

IN reply to your letter no. 3995, dated the 15th December 1910, I am directed to say that a reservist should be required to obtain a license in form XIX, under rule 30 of the Indian Arms Rules, 1909, if he goes with his arms beyond the area for which his license is valid under rule 27 (1) and (2) of the Rules. The Government of India however desire that no fee should be realised from reservists for a license in form XIX, and I am to request that, with the permission of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, orders may be issued accordingly.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

V. DAWSON,

Under Secretary to the Government of India.
